

HESSE FLATOW

Winter

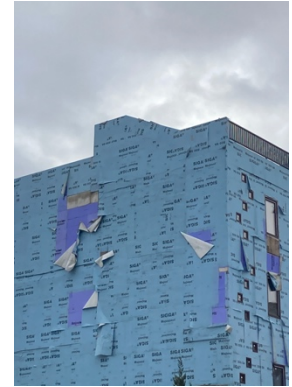

Justin Chance & Sylvie Hayes-Wallace

Organized by Jamie Sterns

February 24 – April 1, 2023

Opening reception: February 24, 6-8pm

Press inquiries: info@hesseflatow.com

HESSE FLATOW is pleased to announce the opening of Winter, a two-person exhibition of works by Justin Chance and Sylvie Hayes-Wallace, organized by Jamie Sterns.

Winter is a word, feeling, thought, season— a blank space which contains the multitudes and the nothingness of timelines remembered and those yet to be written.

In Winter, sculptures, drawings, embroidery, collage, language, and installation reflect on the literal and interpersonal interpretations of the season: as construct, objective truth, method, and frame of mind. Eventually most things conclude in preparation for spring.

Justin Chance (b. 1993) is an artist and writer based in New York. Chance received a Bachelor of Fine Arts and a BA in Visual & Critical Studies from the School of the Art Institute of Chicago in 2015. Chance's work has been the subject of solo and two- person exhibitions at: Apparatus Projects, Chicago (2022), Downs and Ross at CFA Live, Milan IT (2022), Tuesday, Richmond, VA (2021); Smart Objects, Los Angeles (2021); Gernen Regalia, New York (2021); and Smart Objects, Los Angeles (2018). He has recently exhibited at Silke Lindner, JTT, Chapter, Arsenal Contemporary, Downs & Ross, all New York, Galerie Anton Janizewski, Berlin DE (2022); Thierry Goldberg, New York (2021); Housing, Miami (2019); and Institute of Contemporary Art, Baltimore (2018).

Sylvie Hayes-Wallace (b. 1994) is an artist living in New York. Hayes-Wallace received a BFA from the School of the Art Institute of Chicago in 2017. Solo exhibitions include: A.D. NYC, New York (2022); Badwater, Knoxville (2022); and Interstate Projects, New York (2021). Selected group exhibitions include: Simone Subal Gallery, New York (2022); Westbeth, New York (2022); and King's Leap, New York (2021).