Nat Meade "Hank Stamper's Bones" is Coming to Hesse Flatow

Hesse Flatow, NYC // September 08, 2023 - October 14, 2023

August 22, 2023 | in Painting

We are, indeed, in the buzz of preview season as the art world starts to gear up for the Fall exhibition cycle. Galleries have their top priorities in check, the summer is cooling off, and we got art. First stop on one of our many Fall previews is a quick one with one of our favorite painters, Nat Meade, who opens Hank Stamper's Bones at Hesse Flatow in NYC on September 8, 2023. The body of work is marked by a quote from Ken Kesey, "Man is certain of nothing but his ability to fail," so we know we are in a good place. - JUXTAPOZ
